1. Welcome and Introductions

Participants were welcomed. Agenda was introduced. Everyone introduced themselves, named their organizations and their role.

2. Sector and TSLIP News

The TSLIP director quickly reviewed TSLIP activities since the last Council Meeting in May (please refer to presentation for more detail). She then highlighted several issues relevant to the sector, specifically:

- Possible Legal Aid Cuts

Earlier this year LAO announced they had a shortfall, would cut services to newcomers by July 1. This was postponed to November 1. The Federal government contributes about 7million annually to LAO for refugees, the number of claims dropped in 2013, but is now rising again and complexity of cases has increased. LAO has offered informal assurances that cuts will not come into effect, thanks in part to Law Foundation funding which they have just received. However, this issue will return as the number of claims rises and government looks at ways of streamlining the refugee determination system.

- Creation of Settlement and Integration Sector

The Settlement Network and the Settlement and Integration Policy branches have been brought together under one Assistant Deputy Minister. The Deputy Minister is David Manicom. This is intended to create a single point of accountability for the strategic vision and oversight of the department's settlement and integration policy, programs and operations, leading to tighter connection between policy and implementation of settlement programs; David Manicom has reached out to OCASI: wants to improve communication both internally and with external stakeholders including provinces and territories as well as the service sector. The department is also looking at a major overhaul of the Contribution Agreement reporting requirements, monitoring, budget lines, contracting procedures, etc.

- Increased demand for shelter space in Toronto

The number of refugees up in shelters, numbers not properly desegregated to differentiate between refugees, refugee claimants, and permanent residents who used to be refugees. 3 new hotels have been added to house refugees – 250 more rooms, the City wants 50 more by year's end. There are 20 households on waitlist for shelter space at any given point, wait time 1-5 business days. Top source countries: Nigeria, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Sudan, Afghanistan and Bahamas. Average length of stay is 3 months. There is need for a long term plan that takes into account ebbs and flows of people into city.

- Filling out of Immigration Forms (section 91 of IRPA)

There is confusion in the sector regarding the interpretation of IRPA section 91, which prohibits anyone who is not a lawyer or immigration consultant from providing assistance or advice in immigration matters for consideration. Settlement agencies need to know if this includes settlement workers assisting with the completion of immigration forms. In the fall of 2016, IRCC issued the following statement:

There is huge recognition that the sector provides and plays a critical role. Right now settlement staff can provide limited assistance with their (clients') immigration application forms and they will not be contravening the Act. Before the end of the year (2016) the Department hope to post the program delivery instructions so that SPOs will have more clarity. There is recognition of the flexibility you (the sector) needs. This also includes SAHs (Sponsorship Agreement Holders).

Urged to clarify further, another statement was issued by IRCC in early September 2017:

IRCC-funded staff are not to provide citizenship or immigration advice, or act as a representative at any stage of a citizenship or immigration application or proceeding for these clients. And, under no circumstances are IRCC-funded staff to assist in the preparation of documents pertaining to asylum claims.

This phrasing still leaves room for confusion around what forms it is appropriate for settlement workers to assist with filling if they do not act as a representative. Jenny Stone from Neighbourhood Legal Services provided further background to this issue, and directed members to IRCC stakeholder guidelines which can be found at:

<http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/resources/tools/service/rep/stakeholders.asp>

She further expressed that these guidelines do not solve the underlying problem with Section 91 or IRPA itself, which is overbroad. She let the group know that the Inter Clinic Immigration Working Group deputed on the issue to the House of Commons, where the submission became part of the report on Immigration Consultants. As a result of their submission, RECOMMENDATION 11 of the report reads:

“That Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada amend section 91 of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act in order to clarify that non-governmental organizations, such as settlement agencies, will not be subject to sanctions for offering basic immigration services.”

3. Policy Issues for 2017: Scan and discussion

Council Members were asked to contribute policy priorities to be considered as projects for the Systemic Issues Working Group (please see list of potential issues, attached).

4. Review and Approval of Council, Executive and Working Group TORs
