

The West End Non-Insured Walk-In Clinic (NIWIC)

'the right service at the right time'

The West End Non-Insured Walk-In Clinic (NIWIC) at AccessPoint on Jane is a partnership of seven Toronto community health centres (CHCs) and local midwives

When is NIWIC open?

Mondays: 4:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Thursdays: 4:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Midwife services are available on Thursdays.
NIWIC is closed on statutory holidays.

Where is the NIWIC located?

AccessPoint on Jane

761 Jane Street (2nd Floor)

Toronto, ON

M6N 4B4

416-760-2810

Jane St & Woolner Ave is the closest major intersection.

Please click here for bus routes: <http://goo.gl/4dHL3c>

What can a person expect at the NIWIC?

The NIWIC is a walk-in clinic that offers confidential health care services on a first come, first serve basis at no charge. Midwives are available at the clinic to see pregnant women.

General services:

- 1) Episodic Care – attention to a specific medical problem
- 2) Telephone interpretation
- 3) Referrals to other health care providers and specialists if required.

When visiting the NIWIC please bring a list of your medications and any medical records.

Who can use the NIWIC?

You can use the NIWIC if you:

- 1 Live in the City of Toronto
- 2 Do not have a family doctor
- 3 Do not have healthcare insurance, for reasons including:
 - I am in the 3-month wait period for OHIP
 - I do not have legal immigration status (non-status)
 - I am in the refugee claim process and my IFH is expired or my refugee claim was rejected/suspended/ineligible
 - I moved to Toronto from another country for temporary work, make minimum wage (or less) and I cannot afford private health insurance

The NIWIC does not see patients who...

- Have a family doctor/nurse practitioner
- Have current coverage under:
 - Ontario Health Insurance Program (OHIP)
 - Interim Federal Health Program (IFHP)
 - Ontario Temporary Health Program (OTHP)
- Have private health insurance
- Are a visitor or a student

FURTHER QUESTIONS?

For general questions, please call 416-760-2810

For the most updated information on NIWIC services, please visit our website: <http://goo.gl/wLPLJe>